Georgetown Library Fall Book Sale is almost here!

Proceeds benefit a bevy of library programs

Grab your spare change and come to the Georgetown Library on Cleland Street! The library is holding a four-day Fall Book Sale featuring thousands of bestsellers, mysteries, histories, collector's editions, children's books and more.

"We're holding the Fall Book Sale at the library this year," said Shelia Sullivan, organizer. "It's central to everything downtown and you can check out the library's latest programs and displays while you browse for bestsellers."

The sale will be held on Wednesday, November 18th, from 9 a.m. until 6:30 p.m.; Thursday, November 19th, from 9 a.m. until 6:30 p.m.; Friday, November 20th, from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m., and Saturday, November 21st, from 9 a.m. – 1 p.m. Hardcovers are just $2, and paperbacks are $1.

There are plenty of books to choose from, and the sale will fill the library auditorium and stretch into the front foyer. All proceeds from the sale will be used to enhance the library's fabulous, free programs, especially the kids' Summer Reading Program.

The sale is open to residents and visitors alike, and no library card is needed (although we'd be happy to issue you one while you're at the library!)

If you have any questions about the sale, please call Shelia Sullivan at (843) 545-3310.
